Originally published in the Sun-Times newspaper, Belleville Illinois By In one of the many public debates taking place over the legal use of marijuana, marijuana growers have been especially vocal about how marijuana in Illinois should be legalized. While most people will agree that marijuana is a dangerous drug, many people in Illinois have also been in favor of decriminalizing marijuana. Recently, several marijuana activists have been trying to use the Illinois Medical Cannabis Amendment, which was added to this year's Illinois constitution. By adding this Amendment to the constitution, the majority of Illinoisans will be afforded the right to use medical marijuana. Under this Amendment, doctors would be able to prescribe to medical patients the use of medical marijuana. Apr. 15, 2018, 2:20 pm W W by Smartone Spitfire R I'm paying $50 more per month for Sky, and my provider just put Sky onto my phone (for free, since they weren't getting an appreciable return on the phone line). I had Pinnacle, and when I switched to Sky, the internet went away for a day. The community was very helpful, and worked with me to resolve the issue. I'm happy with the switch. Many people may think it's as easy as the guy who always says I'm paying $50 more per month for the same service, but it's a lot more complicated than that. Apr. 15, 2018, 1:30 pm W Re: SmartOne W No, I'm paying about $10 more for the exact same coverage. Not sure what you mean by the coverage. My cellphone plan is $13/mo and my sky internet is $16/mo. When I switched to sky, the internet went away for 24 hrs. Someone from the community worked with me to resolve the issue.
